

Wind Ensemble Uniform Info and Contract

This year, Aloha band is acquiring uniforms for the Wind Ensemble. These tuxedos and dresses are owned by the band program and students will check them out every year. We ask only for a $20 uniform fee to be paid to WBAPI by each member. This will ensure the tuxes and dresses will be clean and maintained for years to come without students needing to purchase their own. Outlined below are the items that will be checked out and in by students, as well as other performance dress expectations.

I agree to pay $20 per year to WBAPI upon checking out a tuxedo or dress. I understand that if I do not adhere to the Wind Ensemble Performance Dress Code, I may be asked to change my appearance or forfeit the right to perform on stage. I understand it is my responsibility to keep all pieces of my uniform together, store in a safe and dry place in the provided garment bag, and return in good condition following the final performance of the year. I will not dry clean, wash, dry, or otherwise alter the tuxedo or dress. If part or all of the uniform or garment bag is lost, altered, torn, destroyed, or otherwise not in performance shape, I understand that I may be billed for a replacement uniform up to $150.
